Conflict in the Holy Land: A Chronology of Occupation

The following timeline shows the occupation of the Levant and the Holy Land, as well as significant events in the history of its occupation.

Beneath the years are symbols indicating the faiths that held control over the holy city of Jerusalem (✡ Judaism, ✝ Christianity, ☪ Islam).

Farming societies emerge in a region of Southwest Asia called the Levant , also known historically as the land of Canaan.	Canaanite cities, civilizations, and empires emerge in the Levant.	Egypt asserts control over the land of Canaan.	Israelites defeat the Canaanites and establish the Kingdom of Israel in Canaan. In Jerusalem the First Temple is built to honor the one God of the Israelites.	The United Monarchy of Israel divides two states: the Kingdom of Israel in the North (capital at Samaria) and the Kingdom of Judah in the South (capital at Jerusalem).	The period of the Assyrian Captivity exiles the 10 tribes of the northern Kingdom of Israel. The Assyrians fail to conquer the Kingdom of Judah.	Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar conquers Judah and destroys the First Temple. The Israelites are exiled from Judah during The Babylonian Captivity .	The Persian Empire takes control of the Levant. The exiled Israelites in Babylon are allowed to return to Judah. The Second Temple is built. Judah becomes the heart of the Israelite nation. The Israelites begin to be known as Jews in reference to the clan of Judah.
