

Archival Work and Digital Spatial Stories (a.k.a. Tours)

5-9-2018

Daily Overview

- Finish reading through and selecting archival materials that you might use
- What makes a good story?
- Practice with Google My Maps
- Use what you've gathered so far to start making your Digital Spatial Story Line (a.k.a. Tour)

Finish Reading Archival Materials

- Two more rounds
- Pick one artifact from each and describe it on your post it note

What makes a good story?

- Elements of a good story:
- Elements of our story so far...
 - A Character
 - 7-10 artifacts to help tell that story

Google My Maps

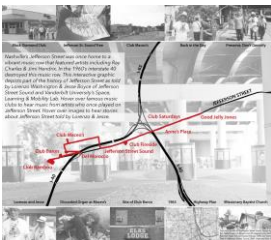

- - Using a class map that is a place to try it out:
<https://drive.google.com/open?id=176oVFBqdbUIiCKS7fkNSKeRm0rnUCC19&usp=sharing>
- Make a Layer with your name on it
 - Put a point & label it
 - Make a line
 - Make a shape

Turning it into a story...

- PROTOTYPE: Use your graphic organizers with info on the archival materials
 1. Share at your table
 2. Place them on the map
 3. Start drafting the story...
 - Connect what is happening to the artifacts and places on the map

This will be a hardcopy draft that you will use to guide your digital version tomorrow*

2018

Tomorrow

- Write down 1-2 questions to ask our guests (Lorenzo Washington)
- We are visiting / walking down Jefferson Street past:
 - First Baptist Church
 - Elks Lodge & Mural
 - Several locations where clubs were
 - Heritage Park
 - Jefferson Street Sound Office and Museum
- Goal: To gather 3 more artifacts that might support your story (take pictures and / or notes on your phone)
